

Mind & body

Net worth

We found the best of the city's 600-plus courts. For a complete list, visit timeoutnewyork.com. By Emily Weiner

Courts	Hours	Rates	Accessibility	No./type of courts	Quality	Indoor/outdoor
PRIVATE COURTS
Cityview Racquet Club 43-26 32nd Pl between Queens Blvd and 43rd Ave, Long Island City, Queens (718-698-3664). Subway: E, V to 23rd St–Ely Ave; G to Court Square; 7 to 33rd St.	Daily 6am–midnight, year-round.	$1,200 initiation fee plus annual dues; $4,000 for full access; $2,200 off-peak access. Hourly rate: $24–$30.	Exclusive. The hardest part is scoring a membership (enrollment is limited). But once you're in, claiming a court is no sweat.	7 Har-Tru	Excellent. When it opens its doors in early September, this $10 million, 80,000-square-foot facility will provide luxury tennis, squash and spa facilities. Its views of the Manhattan skyline probably won't be bad either.	Indoor